

Essential & Non-Essential Clauses Practice #2

Directions: Underline the clause. Circle the noun it's describing. Identify the clause as essential (E) or non-essential (NE) on the line before the sentence. Add commas if necessary.

- _____ 1. Andy's dogs which all have fleas were running loose through the neighborhood.
- _____ 2. The scantrons which are in your mailbox have been graded.
- _____ 3. The girls that performed in the play have received an award.
- _____ 4. Manny who is frequently absent is failing this class.
- _____ 5. The computers that were on the first floor were damaged in the flood.
- _____ 6. Anthony who usually does well on tests got a D on this benchmark.
- _____ 7. The building where the rally was held is on Wabash Street.
- _____ 8. The students who were absent on the day of the final will make up the test next Tuesday.

Essential & Non-Essential Clauses Practice #2

Directions: Underline the clause. Circle the noun it's describing. Identify the clause as essential (E) or non-essential (NE) on the line before the sentence. Add commas if necessary.

- _____ 1. Andy's dogs which all have fleas were running loose through the neighborhood.
- _____ 2. The scantrons which are in your mailbox have been graded.
- _____ 3. The girls that performed in the play have received an award.
- _____ 4. Manny who is frequently absent is failing this class.
- _____ 5. The computers that were on the first floor were damaged in the flood.
- _____ 6. Anthony who usually does well on tests got a D on this benchmark.
- _____ 7. The building where the rally was held is on Wabash Street.
- _____ 8. The students who were absent on the day of the final will make up the test next Tuesday.

_____ 9. The pepperoni pizza which is from La Villa tastes delicious.

_____ 10. The family that lost their home in the fire is staying at a neighbor's house.

_____ 11. The Chromebooks which have not been charged are on the table in the back room.

_____ 12. The boys who participated in the protests were suspended for a week.

_____ 13. Mike and Rachel's house which is worth 1.2 million dollars is on the market.

_____ 14. The song that played at Jorge and Emily's wedding is my favorite one.

_____ 15. Jessica's sister who is always getting into trouble needed to be rushed to the hospital.

_____ 16. Linda and her son are wondering about the backpack that was left in the park.

Write a sentence using an ESSENTIAL clause:

Write a sentence using a NONESSENTIAL clause:

_____ 9. The pepperoni pizza which is from La Villa tastes delicious.

_____ 10. The family that lost their home in the fire is staying at a neighbor's house.

_____ 11. The Chromebooks which have not been charged are on the table in the back room.

_____ 12. The boys who participated in the protests were suspended for a week.

_____ 13. Mike and Rachel's house which is worth 1.2 million dollars is on the market.

_____ 14. The song that played at Jorge and Emily's wedding is my favorite one.

_____ 15. Jessica's sister who is always getting into trouble needed to be rushed to the hospital.

_____ 16. Linda and her son are wondering about the backpack that was left in the park.

Write a sentence using an ESSENTIAL clause:

Write a sentence using a NONESSENTIAL clause: