GRADEBOOK REFLECTION		DAY:	DATE:
Task to complete in under 5 minutes: Log in to GradeBook to check your English II class grade. Look for your percentage grade, the scores you received on past assignments, the assignments you are missing (msg), and your attendance/tardies. Record the information below as a mark of where you are right now. Then answer the reflection questions that follow.
Class percentage:	Class Grade:	Days Absent:	Days Tardy:
of total assignments: # of total assignments missed (msg):
List (in priority) of assignments missed with points:
	1.11
Is your grade where you want it to be at this point in the quarter? Why or why not? Discuss some issues you've had here (ie. absences, laziness, etc.).
Discuss your plan of attack to make a noticeable improvement for next week's reflection. What do you need to do? What do you need to start doing more regularly? (ie. coming to Study Hall during lunch, checking websites, etc.)
GRADEBOOK REFLECTION	E X	DAY:	DATE:
Task to complete in under 5 minutes: Log in to GradeBook to check your English II class grade. Look for your percentage grade, the scores you received on past assignments, the assignments you are missing (msg), and your attendance/tardies. Record the information below as a mark of where you are right now. Then answer the reflection questions that follow.
Class percentage:	Class Grade:	Days Absent:	Days Tardy:
of total assignments:	of total assignments: # of total assignments missed (msg):
List (in priority) of assignments missed with points:
		in the second se

Is your grade where you want it to be at this point in the quarter? Why or why not? Discuss some issues you've had here (ie. absences, laziness, etc.).

Discuss your plan of attack to make a noticeable improvement for next week's reflection. What do you need to do? What do you need to start doing more regularly? (ie. coming to Study Hall during lunch, checking websites, etc.)