

Twelve Angry Men Guided Reading Questions

p.38-41

For the questions below, answer them completely and accurately based on the reading of the text.

1. On p.37, the votes change again. Who changed his vote? Based on his character, WHY do you think he changed his vote? What convinced him otherwise?
2. As the other jurors weigh in on the 5th juror's vote, what does the 8th juror believe might be the problem in the case on p.38? How could this have changed the trial against the defense (the boy's side)?
3. Why are the jurors discussing the boy's return? How does this matter as conversation during their deliberation? Explain.
4. What happens on p.41 after another vote? How does everyone react? What does #11 say about it?

Twelve Angry Men Guided Reading Questions

p.38-41

For the questions below, answer them completely and accurately based on the reading of the text.

1. On p.37, the votes change again. Who changed his vote? Based on his character, WHY do you think he changed his vote? What convinced him otherwise?
2. As the other jurors weigh in on the 5th juror's vote, what does the 8th juror believe might be the problem in the case on p.38? How could this have changed the trial against the defense (the boy's side)?
3. Why are the jurors discussing the boy's return? How does this matter as conversation during their deliberation? Explain.
4. What happens on p.41 after another vote? How does everyone react? What does #11 say about it?

Twelve Angry Men Guided Reading Questions

p.42-48

For the questions below, answer them completely and accurately based on the reading of the text.

1. The 5th juror doubts information from the old man's testimony on p.42. What is it that is becoming an issue? Why?
2. According to the 3rd juror, "He's an old man. You saw him. Half the time he was confused. How could he be positive about anything?" (Rose 43). How is this comment a contradiction, especially coming from the 3rd juror? What does it say about him?
3. On pp.46-47, what is the 8th juror setting out to do? Is it possible to recreate something like this? What does it show? Does he have reason to focus on this detail? Explain.
4. By the end of the Act, what is said that is significant to not only case, but the jurors? Explain.

Twelve Angry Men Guided Reading Questions

p.42-48

For the questions below, answer them completely and accurately based on the reading of the text.

1. The 5th juror doubts information from the old man's testimony on p.42. What is it that is becoming an issue? Why?
2. According to the 3rd juror, "He's an old man. You saw him. Half the time he was confused. How could he be positive about anything?" (Rose 43). How is this comment a contradiction, especially coming from the 3rd juror? What does it say about him?
3. On pp.46-47, what is the 8th juror setting out to do? Is it possible to recreate something like this? What does it show? Does he have reason to focus on this detail? Explain.
4. By the end of the Act, what is said that is significant to not only case, but the jurors? Explain.