

Twelve Angry Men Guided Reading Questions

p.5-15

For the questions below, answer them completely and accurately based on the reading of the text.

1. Describe some of the description of the jury room. Based on its layout and contents, what seems to be important in this room for the jurors?
2. In the judge's directions for deciding on a verdict, what stands out in the message to the jurors? How is this an important part of the instructions for them?
3. Jurors 6, 7, and 8 discuss the room and the weather on p.6. Why is this important to consider for the rest of the play?
4. What seems to be on some of the other jurors' minds before the vote? What are they thinking about that does not concern the trial? How is this important?

Twelve Angry Men Guided Reading Questions

p.5-15

For the questions below, answer them completely and accurately based on the reading of the text.

1. Describe some of the description of the jury room. Based on its layout and contents, what seems to be important in this room for the jurors?
2. In the judge's directions for deciding on a verdict, what stands out in the message to the jurors? How is this an important part of the instructions for them?
3. Jurors 6, 7, and 8 discuss the room and the weather on p.6. Why is this important to consider for the rest of the play?
4. What seems to be on some of the other jurors' minds before the vote? What are they thinking about that does not concern the trial? How is this important?

5. What details do we get of the crime before the first vote is taken on p.11? Explain what has happened and what is at stake.

6. What does it seem that some of the jurors think about this case and the defendant? Discuss with specific examples of at least 2 jurors.

7. The first vote is _____ GUILTY and _____ NOT GUILTY. Juror #_____ was the only person to vote _____. How does he explain this? What does he suggest should be done?

8. How do the other jurors react to his vote? Explain with specific juror examples.

9. On p.15, discuss how Juror #7, #3, and #4 comment about the defendant. What might be important about the facts they've heard and how it relates to the defendant's case?

5. What details do we get of the crime before the first vote is taken on p.11? Explain what has happened and what is at stake.

6. What does it seem that some of the jurors think about this case and the defendant? Discuss with specific examples of at least 2 jurors.

7. The first vote is _____ GUILTY and _____ NOT GUILTY. Juror #_____ was the only person to vote _____. How does he explain this? What does he suggest should be done?

8. How do the other jurors react to his vote? Explain with specific juror examples.

9. On p.15, discuss how Juror #7, #3, and #4 comment about the defendant. What might be important about the facts they've heard and how it relates to the defendant's case?